

October 2024 Newsletter

Welcome back from fall break!

Exam Scheduling

Students - To schedule exams, please use the CDA Exam Form to input all required information. You will receive a confirmation email to your university email once your exam is scheduled. For any exam questions, please email info@disability.utah.edu or stop by our temporary office in the Student Services Building, Basement - Suite 65.

If you are calling the main office and need to leave a voicemail, please state your name, UNID, reason for calling, and a good callback number. During high volume times, it is best to fill out the CDA Exam Form or email info@disability.utah.edu.

Faculty - Please continue to input exam information into the Faculty Portal found on the CDA website.

Center for Disability & Access October Events

- CDA Pumpkin Social - Join the CDA for a chill social and the chance to decorate your own (fake) pumpkin! Meet others in a laid-back environment and have some fun. Monday, October 28th, at 3:30 pm in the Marriott Library Room 5220. Everyone is welcome!

If you need accommodations for any CDA events, please email Shalyse.McKnight@utah.edu.

Community Events

- Adaptive Sports Clinic - Experience basketball and pickleball in an inclusive and adaptive environment on October 19th from 11am-1pm in the Legacy Gym. More information can be found here.
- All-Abilities Day at Red Butte Garden and Arboretum's BOOtanical - A family-friendly seasonal celebration on Saturday, October 26, 9 am-noon, is a more sensory-friendly version of this popular fall event, featuring accessible pathways, sensory-friendly elements, and magical experiences for guests of all abilities. More information can be found here.
- Whitelisted By Chisa Hutchinson (Salt Lake Acting Company) - From October 2nd to October 27th, this heart-pounding, suspenseful, highly theatrical piece is a cautionary tale that considers the possibility of cosmic justice in the absence of social justice. There are three accessible performances that include an open captioned performance, audio described performance, and a combined ASL interpreted and sensory friendly performance. More information can be found here.

Eye to Eye Program

Do you have an interest in connecting to your community and helping neurodivergent learners? We are excited to participate in the Eye to Eye program that helps connect U of U student mentors with elementary aged neurodivergent learners by participating in a weekly art room. The school-based program is designed to build critical social emotional skills that improve the educational experience and outcomes of students who learn differently. We are currently seeking Chapter Leaders to lead the art rooms as well as Mentors. Program starts in January but training to be held in the fall. To learn more contact Shalyse.McKnight@utah.edu.

Let us know!

We want your input on future events! Please complete an anonymous survey to let us know what events you would like to see from the Center for Disability and Access. The survey can be found here.

Check out the CDA Events Webpage to find more information on upcoming events.
